1. The first step is to identify the problem or question that needs to be answered. This involves understanding the context and the specific requirements of the task.

2. The second step is to gather relevant information and data. This can involve research, consultation with experts, or collecting data from various sources.

3. The third step is to analyze the information and data collected. This involves identifying patterns, trends, and relationships that can help in understanding the problem or question.

4. The fourth step is to develop a solution or answer. This involves applying the knowledge and skills gained from the previous steps to create a response that addresses the problem or question.

5. The fifth step is to evaluate the solution or answer. This involves checking the work for accuracy, completeness, and clarity, and making any necessary revisions.

6. The sixth step is to communicate the solution or answer. This involves presenting the findings in a clear and concise manner, using appropriate language and format.

7. The seventh step is to reflect on the process. This involves thinking about what was learned from the experience and how it can be applied to future tasks.

8. The eighth step is to seek feedback. This involves asking others for their thoughts and suggestions, which can help in improving the work and understanding the problem or question better.

9. The ninth step is to revise the work. This involves making changes to the solution or answer based on the feedback received, ensuring that it is the best possible response to the problem or question.

10. The tenth step is to submit the final work. This involves presenting the completed solution or answer to the relevant authority or audience.

(5) 1985 Mar. 19 Stipulation filed. Re: Stay of Proceedings
(6) 1985 Mar. 26 Order of the Court filed. ORDERED... that 1. The above captioned matter will be STAYED with regard to the Defendant, Eastern Indemnity Company of Maryland; 2. this stay does not preclude Plaintiff from pursuing its suit in this action against the Defendant, CMA, Inc.; 3. Anne Arundel County is free to pursue a claim against Eastern Indemnity Company of Maryland through the receivership of that company, currently pending before the Circuit Court for Montgomery County.
Should the Plaintiff prevail in its lawsuit against CMA, Inc. it must nonetheless comply with the requirements of Maryland Code Ann. Art. 48A Sec. 149 with regard to any claim it files against the Eastern Indemnity Company of Maryland receivership, and such judgment will not alone be sufficient evidence to establish either the liability of Eastern Indemnity Company of Maryland, or the amount of the claim against Eastern Indemnity Company of Maryland, but must be independently supported by facts to establish liability of Eastern Indemnity Company of Maryland and the amount of damages. (Copies mailed to Messrs. Gardner and Grimm
